	UNIT 7 NAME	Recognise and name different types of water and weather in English.	Know how to describe the weather.	Link different types of climate and weather.	Understand and value the importance of water and the various things it is used for.	Distinguish between the water we can and cannot drink.	Know the three states of water and understand how they change.	Know the characteristics and importance of air.	Know about pollution and the things that cause it.	Know what weather symbols mean and how to use them on a weather map.	Know the colours of the rainbow.	Work with others to practise and consolidate knowledge.	Acquire vocabulary related to water, air and weather and use the terms correctly.
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30													