	UNIT 1 NAME	Identify and respect the individual characteristics of people.	Identify and name the external parts of the body.	Classify the parts of the body and link them to the head, trunk and limbs.	Identify and name the parts of the face.	Identify the physical characteristics of their own body.	Match each sense with its corresponding organ.	Perform direct observation through the senses.	Classify smells as pleasant or unpleasant.	Differentiate different flavours.	Match each flavour with the corresponding food.	Recognise different sounds and sort them into loud or soft sounds.	Discrimination and classification of objects by shape, colour and size.	Discriminate and classify objects by their characteristics: hot-cold, hard-soft, rough-smooth.
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30														