	UNIT 2 NAME	Know the function of the skeleton.	Know the characteristics of the bones, identify and name them.	Name the joints of the body and locate them in the body.	Recognise the possible movements that each joint can make.	Knowledge of the function of the muscles.	Name some muscles and locate them in the body.	Recognise the possible movements that each muscle can make.	Understand information and acquire vocabulary about bones, muscles and joints and show interest in the information found in reading texts.	Display a positive and participative attitude when carrying out cooperative learning activities.
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30										