	UNIT 5 NAME	Explain the census and civil registry, surveys and statistics.	Define birth and death rate, natural and real growth.	Know the total number of Spain's population and its natural and real growth.	Describe Spain's geographical distribution of population.	Know the migration and immigration movements in Spain.	Classify Spanish population based on age and work, distinguishing between the active and inactive population.	Know the total sum of Europe's population, its distribution and general characteristics.	Indicate on a map the areas with the most population density in Europe.	Represent the population on graphs.	Recognise cultural and human diversity and have a respectful attitude towards it.
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30											