	UNIT 6 NAME	Define Spain's territorial organisation.	Describe the municipality's formation.	Describe and identify provinces and autonomous communities.	Identify the most important democratic principles established in the Constitution.	Know the King's role as head of state and his representative role in Spain.	Identify the executive branch and explain its composition and role.	Identify the legislative branch, its role and organisation.	Know the judges' roles in the courts and the judicial branch.	Know about the municipalities and the city hall.	Talk about provinces.	Know about autonomous communities, the Statute of Autonomy and the government institutions of the community.	Know how to participate as a citizen in a direct way.
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30													